

Ways and Means Committee Report to the Faculty Senate

2017/2018 Academic Year Activities

Meetings:

- October 2107: The committee provided feedback on the proposed changes to Document XIX and Document XXXVI of the faculty handbook through the use of Google Docs.
- November 2017: The committee met face-to-face to finalize feedback for the proposed changes to the aforementioned documents.
- April 2018: The committee reviewed the faculty handbook and previous Faculty Senate meeting minutes to determine if elections were a part of the selecting department heads process and if evaluations of department heads were mentioned.

Accomplishments:

- Provided feedback and suggested revisions to Document XIX and XXXVI of the faculty handbook, revisions and feedback were accepted by the senate
- Voting processes for selecting department heads are included in the faculty handbook. However, there was no mention of evaluations of department heads.
- Solicited feedback from the senate for drafting a proposal to include evaluations of department heads within the faculty handbook.
